Katie Roth is President of Aureon Staffing (the new name for Portico Staffing), a full-service employment placement agency located in West Des Moines, Iowa. She owned the agency for ten years before selling it to Merit Resources, now part of the Aureon Family of Companies in late 2015.

Prior to opening her employment agency in 2005, she was vice president and a shareholder for eight years with Merit Resources and was the Area Manager for a national staffing firm for ten years.

She is currently program chair for the local SHRM chapter and has served on the State SHRM Council as Professional Development Director.
